

“My Life: The Last Chapter”

Four Workshops in May | Tuesdays in Basalt | Thursdays in Aspen
5:00–6:30pm | FREE

Be the author of your last chapter! Regardless of your age, health, or lifestyle, creating a practical plan of action for the end of life will bring you peace of mind and be an invaluable gift to your loved ones. In this course, we will bring light to the legal and financial tasks and compassion to the physical and emotional challenges that we all face.

In each workshop, you will complete paperwork and take actionable steps toward end of life planning.

Session 1 | Why and How We Must Plan

Steve Ayers DO, Pitkin County Coroner & Allison Daily, Pathfinders

May 7 at Basalt Library or

May 9 at Pitkin County Library

Session 2 | Legal & Financial Guidance

Paul Smith & Ken Ransford PC, Estate Planner

May 14 at Basalt Library or

May 16 at Pitkin County Library

Session 3 | Choices for End of Life Care

William Duke MD, Hospice/Palliative Care Physician

May 21 at Basalt Library or

May 23 at Pitkin County Library

Session 4 | What it Means to Die a Good Death

Akaljeet Khalsa, Death Doula

May 28 at Basalt Library or

May 30 at Pitkin County Library

My Life: The Last Chapter